

Singer Songwriter

Briana Lyn, the vibe and the heartbeat of modern country music.

She's vivacious, sassy, with a voice that is both exquisite and powerful, and hot on the LA scene: The multi-talented and beautiful Briana Lyn.

"Sure, I'm a country singer, but with the energy of rock and the soul of pop music."

This rising star's progress has been truly meteoric. "My home city of St. Paul, Minnesota just got too small for me, so the move to LA was inevitable, and a total success. Songwriting collaborations and commercial projects soon followed."

A gifted academic, Briana has a BA in music, and has studied under a number of eminent tutors for both piano and singing. Her massive talent as a live performer is well established on the LA club scene, with featured shows at The Dresden and Molly Malone's Irish Pub.

Briana has released a number of original songs available on all music platforms, along with excellent professionally produced videos, featuring a truly beautiful and multi talented lady.

She's both magical, effervescent, and the spark that makes a star. The vibe and the heartbeat of modern country pop music.
